AGENDA ITEMS

❖ Carroll County Schools Presentation

Scott Cowart, Superintendent of Carroll County Schools presented the 2018 Carroll County School System's Annual Report. Mr. Cowart stated that the Carroll County School System serves 72% of K-12 children in Carroll County and that for the fifth consecutive year those numbers continue to increase. Mr. Cowart reported the district graduation rate of 91.7% was the highest in the history of Carroll County Schools and that Georgia Milestone scores for Carroll County elementary, middle, and high schools surpassed the state average. In closing Mr. Cowart shared that the school system had invested nearly 2.5 million dollars in school safety equipment over the last 18 months including cameras, access doors and many other safety measures. Mr. Cowart was joined by Board of Education members Bart Cater, District 6; Bryant Turner, District 7; and Charity Aaron, Director of Partnerships and Communication.

❖ Region Six Advisory Council Presentation

Steve Spivey, Chair, Statewide Leadership Council presented an update on the Region Six Department of Behavioral Health and Development Disabilities (DBHDD) Advisory Council. Irene Shane, Vice-Chair of the Region Six Advisory Council shared a new statewide survey that will provide feedback to the DBHDD Council about services provided throughout the state of Georgia. Ms. Shane stated this survey would be anonymous and would be available for about the next 6-8 months. Mr. Spivey and Ms. Shane were joined by Valerie West, Chair, Region Six Advisory Council and Probate Judge Betty Cason.
