TEAM ROLE DESCRIPTIONS

Team Role Descriptions

UWG Campus Champion: the role of campus champion is to provide a point of contact between the election office and students. UWG Student Government President, Ethan Stiles was selected as champion.

Elections staff communicated directly with Ethan, who then dispersed vital information to student recruits, to insure all interested in working as a poll worker were given necessary information regarding, requirements, and training.

University Of West Georgia Elections & Registration Liaisons

UWG professors and staff ensure all university applicable rules were followed and that all necessary steps were completed.

Dr. Steve Goodson has been the precinct manager on campus for 20+ years and has been the elections liaison promoting voter registration awareness and encouraging student involvement.

Dr. Sal Peralta is the UWG Political Science Department chair and studies voting patterns in Federal, State, and Carroll County elections.

Brenda McCrary has been instrumental in organizing numerous student voter registration drives on campus and coordinates with elections office to set up student voter registration drive training.

Human Resources

Human Resources Director Anne Lee and HR Specialist Meghan Carroll provided the needed HR paperwork and required documents to each student to ensure all students met with state and local guidelines to work as a Carroll County employee.

County Sponsors

UWG alumnus and District 4 County Commissioner, Michelle Morgan, acted as an additional sponsor to help facilitate advertising the Best of the West student program. Ms. Morgan worked with April Saunders, UWG Creative Services Director and created the graphics used for t-shirts worn by student workers on Election Day. Senator Dugan, UWG alumnus participated in student poll worker training and spoke of the importance of the partnership with UWG and student participation in local elections.
